PREFACE

The innovations that occur in the changing and developing world also show themselves in the field of social studies education, which has a multidisciplinary structure that includes different disciplines. In this direction, the content of the work area is constantly renewed according to the requirements of the time and the change is kept up with in this way. This change contributes to the main aim of social studies, which is to raise good citizens who can solve problems, are active, productive and adapt to the conditions of the age. The change experienced does not only affect the content of social studies, but this change also directs the studies conducted in the field. This idea has been the starting point for the creation of this work. Each of the chapters in the book has been prepared with the contributions of academics working in different universities in Turkey, independent researchers and doctoral / master's students. This book, which includes studies such as root value, concept teaching, good and effective citizenship, immigration, privacy education, the use of web 2.0 tools in education, differentiated teaching activities for gifted students in the field of social studies education, consists of 13 chapters. This book, prepared in the field of social studies education, is a work that can be a source for researchers who are and will be working in the field. We would like to thank all the authors of the book for their efforts, dedication and contributions to the formation and completion of this study. We would also like to thank the Pegem Academic Publishing family for publishing the book. We hope that this work, which is dedicated to the 100th anniversary of the Republic, will contribute to educators, social studies field experts and researchers working in this field.
